Awareness created about inequalities faced by girl child

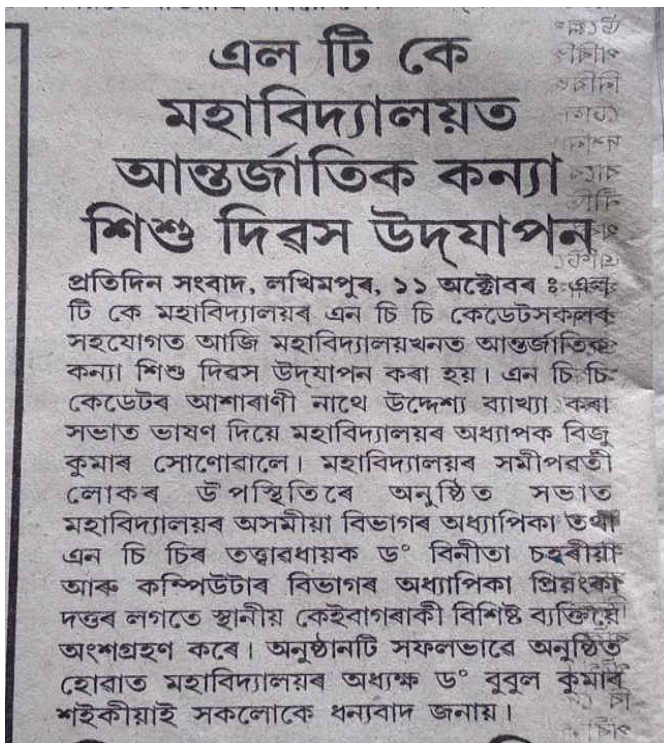

A CORRESPONDENT
LAKHIMPUR, Oct. 12: The International Day of the Girl Child was celebrated on Sunday in Lakhimpur and Dhemaji districts in order to spread awareness about the inequalities faced by the girl child and to ensure that they get equal opportunities and exposure.

All ranks of 72 Assam Girls' (Independent) Coy NCC, North Lakhimpur, led by Officer Commanding Colonel Jasbir Singh Cherna, celebrated the event on this occasion. The unit and all its colleges and schools across Lakhimpur and Dhemaji districts celebrated the occasion as an opportunity to educate everyone about the rights of the girl child. The events included slogan writing, nikkad natak and door-to-door awareness campaigns. Due to COVID-19 social distancing norms, this year the programme was organized in small groups. The event was made a success by active participation of NCC Officers Kalyani Knowar, Binita Saharia and Dr Subhanjali Das and cadets of Dhemaji College, Dhemaji Girls' College, Lakhimpur Girls' College and LTK College, Azad.

The programme started with speeches by the cadets on the importance of the International Day of the Girl Child. The theme included educating everyone about the Supreme Court judgment on inheritance for girls. The cadets urged people not to observe any difference between the male or female child.

The event was also observed at Kollanuri Tea Estate in Lakhimpur district, focusing on this year's theme 'My Voice, For Equal Future'. The programme was organized by Purva Bharati Educational Trust, PRAYAS and Nawa Bihan Samaj with the support of the local people of the area. The guests of honour who took part in the meeting were Lalita Topno and Sangeeta Tete, the president and secretary of All Assam Women's Association of Assam, journalist Farhana Ahmed, Sazal Hussain, professor of Lakhimpur Commerce College, Sanjit Tanti, secretary of Assam Chah Mazdoor Sangha, Lakhimpur.

NCC Annual Training Camp kick-starts in Lakhimpur

A CORRESPONDENT

LAKHIMPUR, Feb 1: National Cadet Corps (NCC), the largest uniformed youth organization in the world is a major contributor in nation building. NCC offers basic military training to the cadets of schools and colleges. The NCC has a two-year training cycle for junior cadets and three years of training for senior cadets. After two years of NCC training, the cadets of schools get 'A' Certificate and the cadets of Senior Division or Senior Wing get 'B' Certificate after completing three years. The cadets get 'C' Certificate after completing three years. These certificates make the NCC cadets eligible for a number of benefits, major being no written exam for entry into armed forces for C certificate holders. In addition, concessions are granted in form of bonus marks by Central Armed Police Organizations such as Assam Rifle BSF, CRPF etc to NCC C Certificate holders. They also get preference in admission for higher education as well as State Government jobs.

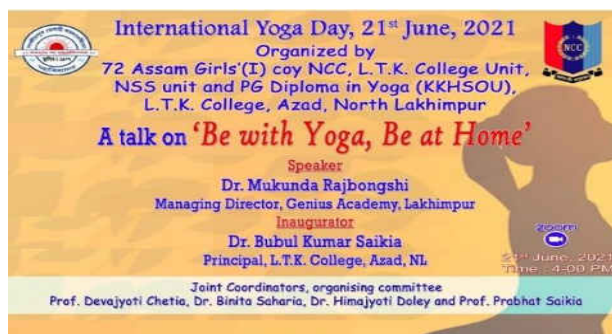

This year, the Annual Training Camp kicked off at ITI Women at Chabua of Lakhimpur district on Monday under the leadership of Colonel J S Cheema, with the assistance of College NCC Officers Dr Subhanjali Das, Dipali Nong, Binita Scharia, Kalyani Koowar and Sub D K Bhat, Hav Jobey, Hav Akhil G and GCI Sangita. Colonel JS Cheema informed that all anti-COVID 19 precautions were carried out before and during the camp. All cadets in the camp were screened for temperature and allowed entry after getting hands sanitized and while wearing masks.

The camp started with the arrival of cadets from North Lakhimpur and Dima Hasar districts and the address by Col J S Cheema, followed by tree plantation and group photo. Then cadets participated in tent pitching. A lecture event and demonstration was held for them by a team of the National Disaster Response Force where they learnt about life-saving skills, evacuation of casualties and first aid. Theory class on national integration was conducted by the caretaker officer. At the end of the day, all cadets left for the day to report with additional cadets on Tuesday.

❖ L.T.K. College NCC Unit Participated in the Swarnim Jayanti 2021 organized by 72 Assam Girls' (I) Coy

Report: The Swarnim Jayanti was celebrated to mark completion of 50 years of the Indo-Pak War, 1971. The Indo-Pakistani War was a military confrontation between India and Pakistan occurring during the Bangladesh Liberation War in East Pakistan. In the Golden Jubilee celebration of the Indo-Pak War the 72 Assam Girls' (I) Coy organized a grand event to mark the victory of India. Defence Officers, Administrative Officers and families of ex defence officials from different places were present in the event. The L.T.K. College NCC Unit very actively participated in the events under different categories.
