has participated in 1-Day workshop on

Nurturing Graduates on Industry Readiness

Conducted by ICT Academy on 18th December 2020 in Collaboration with L.T.K College, Assam.

1. The first section of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial data and for facilitating the audit process.

2. The second section outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in capturing data from various sources, including sales invoices, purchase orders, and bank statements, and how this information should be entered into the accounting system.

3. The third section addresses the issue of reconciling accounts. It explains the process of comparing the company's internal records with external statements, such as those from banks or suppliers, to identify and resolve any discrepancies.

4. The fourth section discusses the role of internal controls in preventing errors and fraud. It describes how a well-designed system of checks and balances can help to ensure that all transactions are properly authorized and recorded.

5. The fifth section provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document and offers recommendations for further improvement. It suggests that regular training and updates to the accounting system are necessary to maintain the highest level of accuracy and efficiency.

Transaction Date		Description	Amount	Account
2023-01-01		Opening Balance	1000.00	101
2023-01-05		Sales Invoice #123	500.00	401
2023-01-10		Purchase Order #456	200.00	501
2023-01-15		Bank Statement	150.00	102
2023-01-20		Supplier Payment	300.00	502
2023-01-25		Customer Payment	400.00	402
2023-01-30		Interest Expense	10.00	601
2023-02-01		Closing Balance	1150.00	101

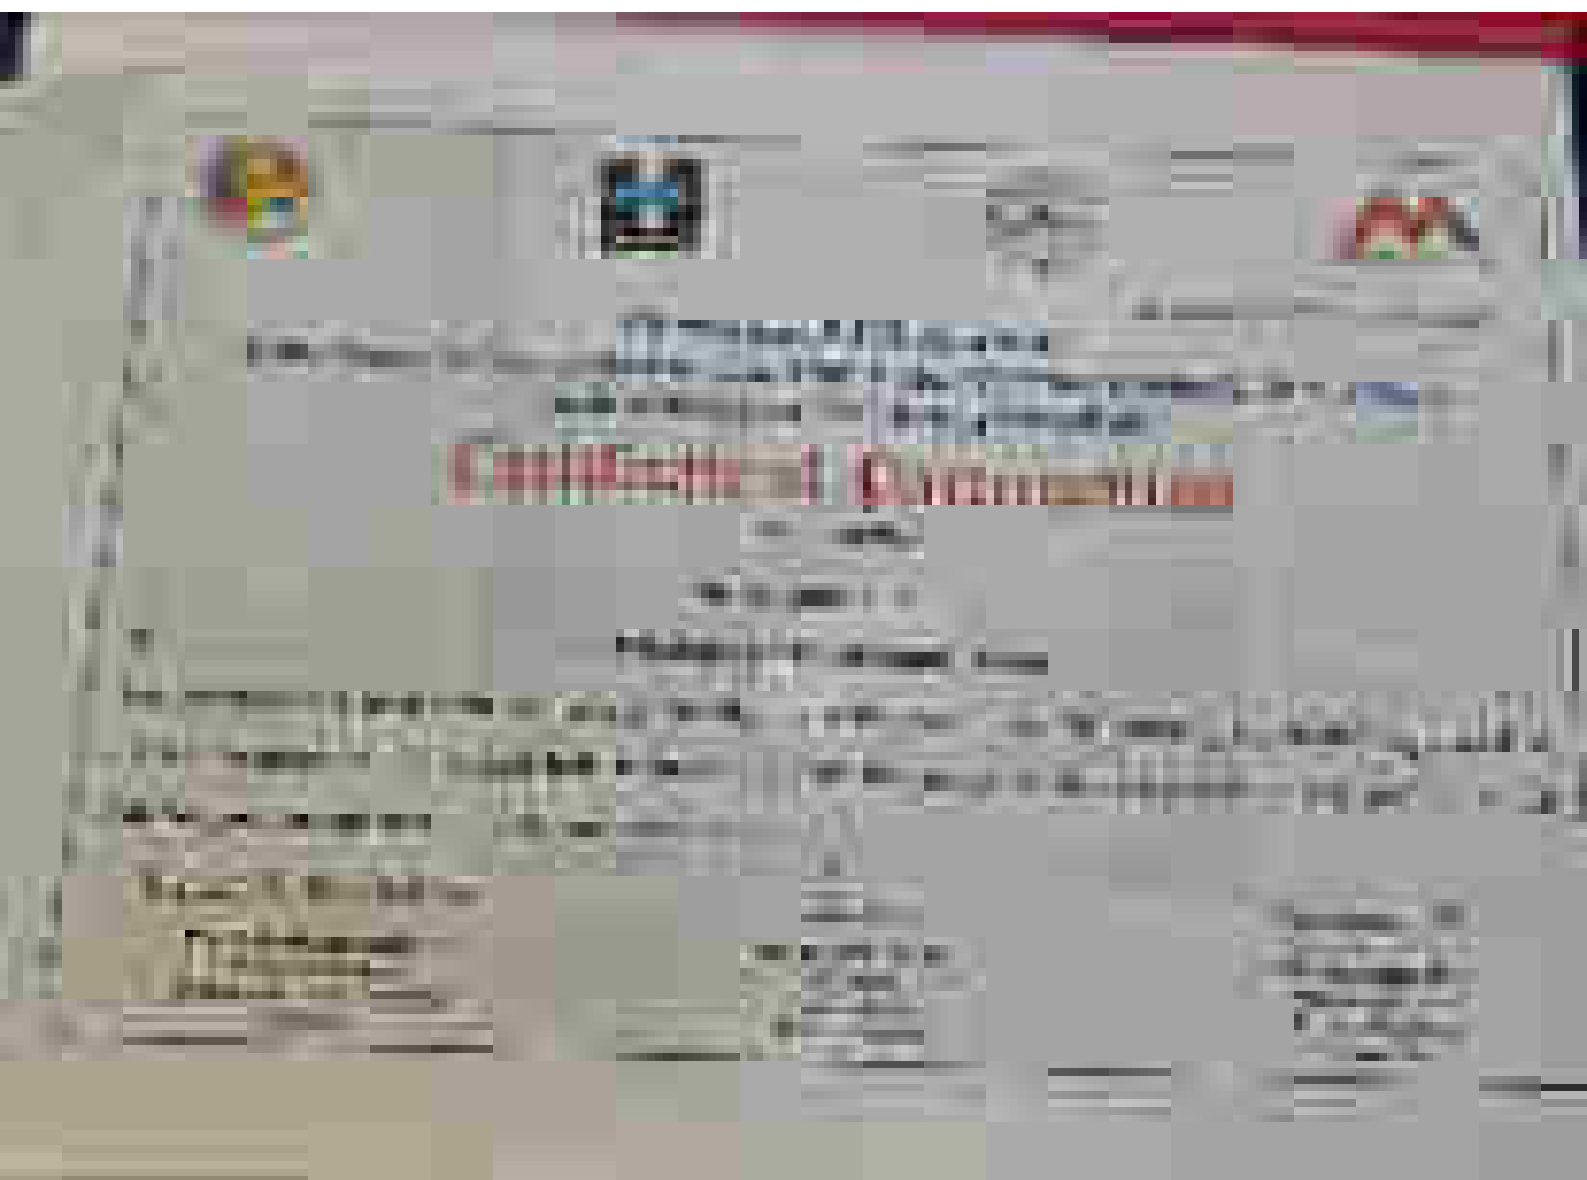

6. The sixth section discusses the importance of regular backups of the accounting data. It explains that in the event of a system failure or data loss, having a recent backup can be crucial for recovering the information and continuing operations.

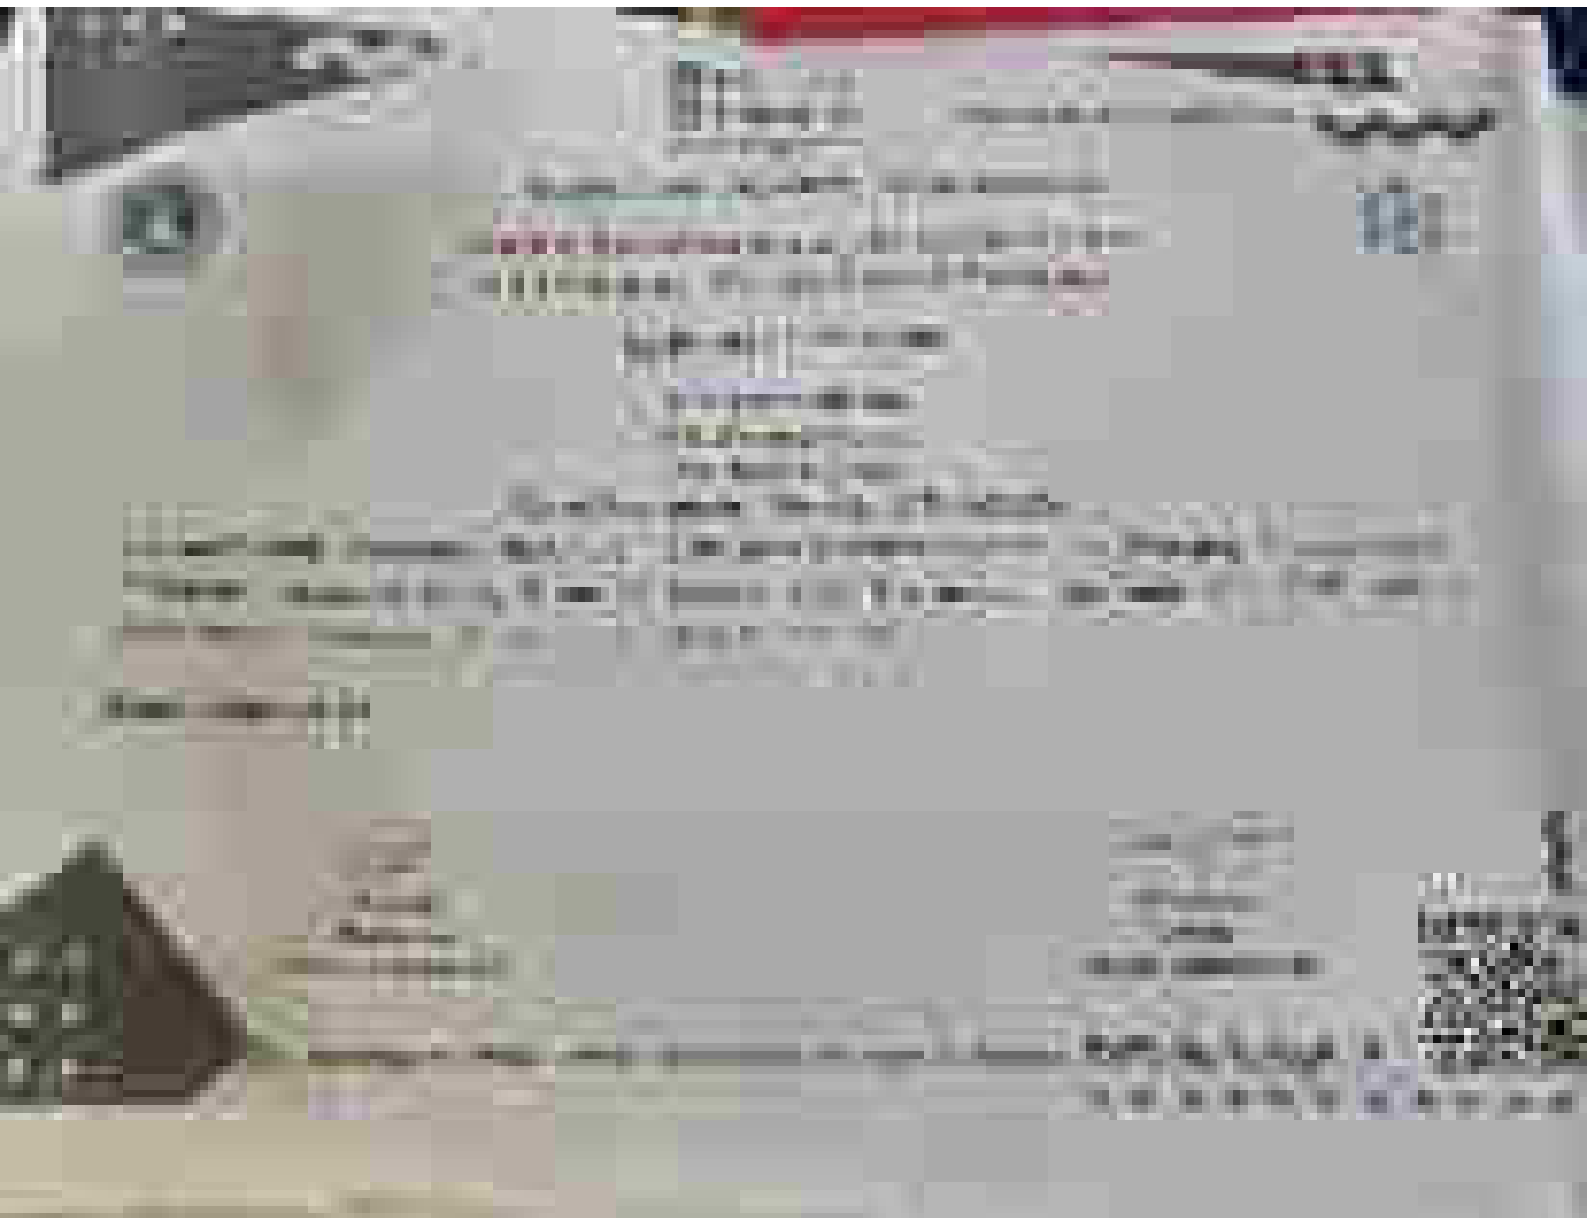

7. The seventh section provides a checklist for the monthly closing process. It lists the tasks that need to be completed, such as reviewing all transactions, reconciling accounts, and generating financial statements, to ensure that the books are closed accurately and on time.

8. The eighth section discusses the role of the accounting department in providing financial insights to management. It explains how the data collected and analyzed can be used to identify trends, forecast future performance, and make informed business decisions.

9. The ninth section provides a summary of the document and offers final recommendations. It emphasizes the importance of ongoing communication and collaboration between the accounting department and other parts of the organization to ensure the success of the financial management process.
